We're so glad you're here!

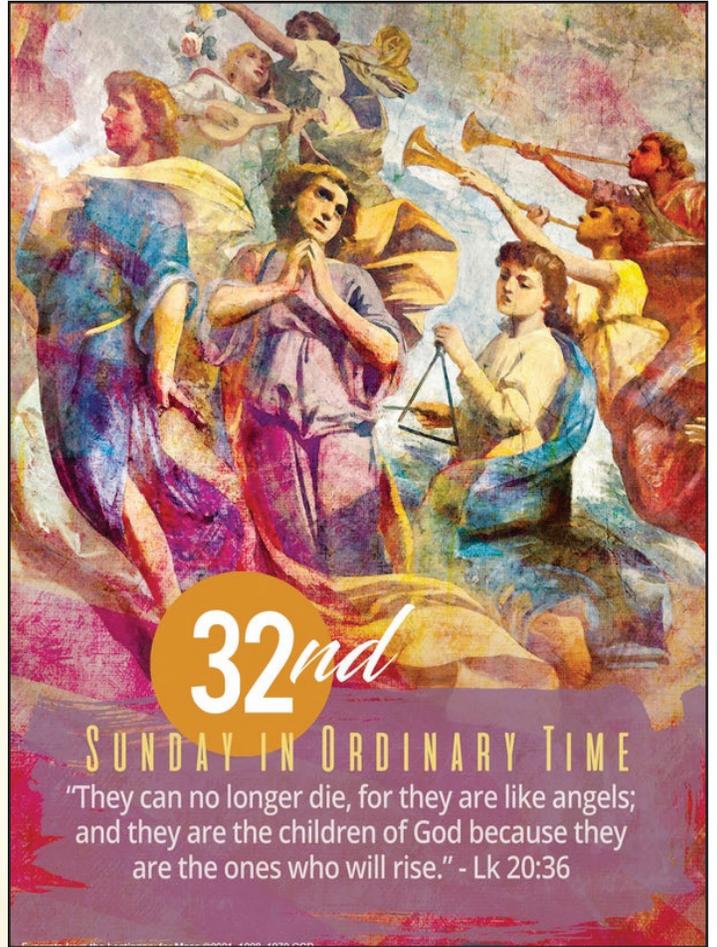

God created humanity for greatness and calls each of us to continually grow in holiness. This is no small task and something we can't do on our own. So Jesus gave us the Church and its many treasures to guide us; providing a perfect road map to salvation. It's my prayer that everyone comes to know the truth of the gospel.

I want to take this opportunity to personally invite you to grow deeper in your faith, and allow myself, and the many other professionals and volunteers at SHOJ to assist you however we can; let's help each other get to heaven. You can't do it without the Church, and we can't do it without YOU.

Our doors are open to any and all who desire to hear the truth in a loving and peaceful setting. As a physician of souls, I care deeply about your well-being, and want to help you stay spiritually healthy. If it's been awhile since you've had a "checkup," come on in and we'll chat. If there's anything else we can do for you, please ask.

I look forward to ministering to you as your spiritual Father.

In Peace,
Fr. Pat Sullivan

Blind Wine Tasting & Beer Garden

Saturday, November 12, 6:00 - 8:30 p.m.

We're hosting a Wine Tasting event, with a spin...a "Blind" Wine Tasting. Attendees will bring their favorite bottle of Red or White wine ($20 or less) and everyone tastes through a flight of various mystery wines, one at a time. We'll have people facilitating the tasting. Each attendee will vote on their favorite wine at the table. If yours is the winner, you win a prize!

Have a significant other that doesn't like wine? We have limited space in our "beer garden" where attendees are asked to bring a 6 pack of their favorite specialty beer to share in the "garden"!

Tickets are $5 per person to help cover the nibbles for the night. Register in Realm or look for link in Friday email.

NATIONAL VOCATION AWARENESS WEEK

(Nov. 6-12)

Heavenly Father, with a deep trust in the love that flows from the Sacred Heart of your Son, give to all young people the desire and courage to respond generously when you call them to the priesthood, religious life, sacramental married life, or single life.

Inspire them with strong examples of disciples dedicated to living out their own call to holiness.

May all of us pattern our lives after Mary, who was not afraid to let it be done to her according to your Word (Lk 1:38). Amen

Daily Readings Meditations from The Word Among Us	When we pray, let's look at God's greatness, not our own lack of faith. Let's place our needs and desires in his hands. As we do, we may see our own faith increasing.	The next time you find yourself struggling to meet yet another need, cry out to the Lord, "Increase your love in me!" Trust the Holy Spirit to receive it and let it grow.	The next time you're longing for something to last, get to Mass! Take a moment to be before the Tabernacle and trust that the Lord will never leave you.

In Sympathy:

Let us remember in our prayers the repose of Gary Dean Lang, brother of Charlene Wittman of our Parish.

Holy Hour for Vocations

In honor of Vocations Awareness Week, please join us for a Holy Hour to pray for Vocations Thursday, November 10 from 7:00 p.m. – 8:00 p.m. in Church Meeting Rooms (enter through handicap doors). All are welcome!

Reflect on the Word

First Reading: The story from Second Maccabees recounts how Jews were tortured to death for refusing to violate God's laws. It is also one of the earliest writings from the Old Testament that speak to the Jewish belief in the resurrection from the dead for those who suffer for the faith. Would you have the courage to die for your faith?

Second Reading: Paul asks the believers in Thessalonica to pray for him, Silvanus, and Timothy "to be delivered from perverse and wicked people." What would you like your faith community to pray about for you?

Gospel: The Sadducees attempted to trap Jesus with a marriage riddle about the resurrection of the dead. How do you deal with friends who challenge what you believe?

Holy Hour for Vocations

National Vocation Awareness Week will be celebrated in our country November 6-12. Please ask Our Lord for more dedicated, holy priests, deacons, and consecrated men and women. May they be inspired by Jesus Christ, supported by our faith community, and respond generously to God's gift of vocation.

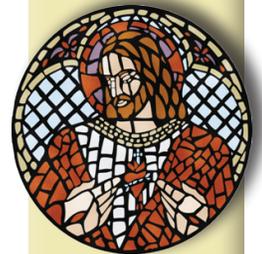

As a thank you to Fr. Pat, Fr. Riley and Deacon Nicholas, we invite parishioners to SEND A CARD to either or all of them in the next two weeks as a way to affirm their "YES" to the Lord.

Please send cards to our Parish office at: 5501 Monticello Rd. Shawnee, KS 66226 or drop off in the collection baskets. Thank you!

"HAVE NO ANXIETY AT ALL, BUT IN EVERYTHING, BY PRAYER AND PETITION, WITH THANKSGIVING MAKE YOUR REQUEST KNOWN TO GOD."

Consecration to St. Joseph Men's Retreat

Deacon Nicholas will lead this men's only 6-week retreat series, sharing how St. Joseph is the go-to guide for men to use as they lead their domestic church (family). The study explains that St. Joseph is the "increaser." He has paternal love for you and the power to increase the presence of God in your life and take you to greater heights in the spiritual life!

Consecration to St. Joseph, Leading your Domestic Church
Thursdays, starting on November 17, 6:30 - 8 p.m.

Register for the retreat and purchase a book (link for book in registration) <https://bit.ly/shoj-fall-formation> and join us each Thursday to discuss the daily readings and grow closer to Christ.

Women's Advent Study - Peace Has a Name

This Advent, you are invited to rest in God's peace, preparing your heart for the Prince of Peace to be born at Christmas time with an Advent devotional from Blessed is She: Peace Has a Name. The world cannot give us peace nor can we find it in ourselves without the gift of God's grace. Would you like to enter this Christmas season restored and ready? The key to a good life, an abundant life, is to fall into step with Peace Himself. And that Peace has a name: Jesus Christ.

Tuesdays, Nov. 29 - Dec. 20
6:30 - 8:00 p.m.
School Library
Cost: $25

Week 1: what we think peace is
Week 2: where we seek peace out
Week 3: who or what steals our peace
Week 4: why God alone brings peace

Price includes book, 4-week companion email to encourage you weekly to visit Our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament. This reflection, prompts for prayer, and a video from a different author of the book each week.

4-part series includes a brief reflection

Saint of the Week, Saint Martin of Tours Feast Day is November 11

Saint Martin of Tours was born a pagan in what is now Hungary around 316, but he was raised in Italy where his father, a tribune, was posted. At 15 he was compelled to serve in the Roman military, though he was already a catechumen. There is a popular legend that while on campaign the saint cut his cloak in half to share with a cold beggar. That night he dreamed of Jesus and his cloak was restored. He was baptized at 18. Only two years after his baptism, he was released from the military, he had refused his battle pay and to fight saying he was a soldier for Christ. He is the first recognized conscientious objector. After his release from the military, he became a disciple of Hilary of Poitiers. He worked diligently against the Arian heresy, which denies the divinity of Jesus Christ, and established a community of hermits near Poitiers in 361, the first French monastery. In 371 he reluctantly became bishop of Tour. Nearby, he founded a second monastery, Marmoutier, because he preferred the life of a monk he retreated often. In 384 there was a popular heresy infecting the Church in Spain, led by the bishop Priscillian and his followers. Saint Martin died in Candes-Saint-Martin, Gaul in 397. He is notably one of the first saints who was not martyred. He is the patron saint of France.

Angel Tree is Here

Spread the true joy of Christmas, by participating in the 22nd Annual Sacred Heart Angel Tree. This is our opportunity to provide a brighter Christmas to others in our community. Many needs have been brought our way! Angel Tree works with numerous local organizations to gather requests from our community, in turn allowing us to be the hands and feet of Jesus. The Angel Tree is Virtual again this year, so scan the barcode on the sign in the school hallway and choose a gift. Purchase the gift and return them wrapped, to the Church Narthex on November 26-27 or December 3-4. May God bless the Sacred Heart community with the true spirit of Christmas through the love and peace of his Son, Jesus Christ. Any questions, please contact Carol A. Coyle at 913.441.1851 or cac_537@yahoo.com.
