Dear Sacred Heart of Jesus Parishioners,

Remember at our Parish Mission in February, I rolled out our very first survey (OF MANY!!), regarding the Five Foundation Stones.

I promised you that we would complete this survey every quarter so that we can measure our parish and how we are holding ourselves accountable to living out the Five Foundation Stones of: Adoration, Reconciliation, Rosary, Fasting and praying with scripture.

Please complete the survey so we can continue to track our progress as a parish. We will report back to you.

Continue the mission with me of putting hearts on a collision course with the Sacred Heart of Jesus!

Fr. Jaime Zarse
Pastor

Gospel Meditation

13th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Sin isn't given its due these days. Downplaying sin is dangerous. But there is also another spiritual misstep in which we make way too big a deal out of sin. It happens, for example, when we persistently wonder if our confessed sins are "really" forgiven, or suspiciously ponder what God "really" thinks about us, behind His merciful face. Or when someone returns to Church, and we question whether his or her conversion was genuine. Or when we commit sin and put on a sad face, thinking, "Maybe my sins are too great for God to deal with." God save us from that attitude!

Well, he does just that, this week, in the raising of Jairus' daughter. The dead twelve-year-old's house is filled with a spirit of excessive moaning and groaning, tumultuous weeping and wailing. They even laugh at Jesus in a mocking tone. It's shocking how easy it is for him to raise the dead child. It is equivalent to gently waking a kid from a light nap. And then he sends her off to get some lunch. No big whoop. The overactive drama is actually part of the problem, and removing it is a key part of the miracle.

Friends, sin can and does kill, but Jesus is always ready and able to raise us back to life, often without much hullabaloo. His ease of forgiving should never be a pretext for presumption, minimizing sin, or taking lightly the cost he pays for our sins on the cross. But for God's sake, we often need Jesus to put out the weepers and wailers. He's the Lord. And remember, the girl is not dead, she's just sleeping.

"HAVE NO ANXIETY AT ALL, BUT IN EVERYTHING, BY PRAYER AND PETITION, WITH THANKSGIVING MAKE YOUR REQUEST KNOWN TO GOD."

Why do we do that? Catholic Life Explained Face-to-Face Confession

Question: In today's digital world, do we really need to be face-to-face with a priest to confess our sins? Would Facetime or Zoom ever be allowed? Answer: The question of whether or not Catholics can celebrate the Sacrament of Reconciliation virtually (via social media, by phone, or in some other way) is a question that has actually been around for several years. The recent COVID-19 pandemic brought the question back in a new way, especially as many parishes were forced to introduce a sort of "social distanced" confession, with the sacrament being celebrated outdoors. In reflecting on this question, however, there are a couple points that we want to keep in mind. First, as the Code of Canon Law observes in different places, the faithful have a right to the sacraments of the Church and the Church's ministers have a responsibility to make them accessible. At the same time, however, we always have to be sure that we respect the nature of the sacraments themselves. Although modern forms of technology and communication can help us in our work of evangelization catechesis, the Pontifical Council for Social Communication has reminded us that, "Virtual reality is no substitute for the Real Presence of Christ in the Eucharist, the sacramental reality of the other sacraments, and shared worship in a flesh and blood human community. There are no sacraments on the internet" (no. 9). Although our encounters with others on the internet can be considered "real" in one sense, in the sacraments we encounter Christ in a personal and ecclesial way. It is never just a private experience but is always grounded in the life of the Church and this means that it must truly be personal, including the contact between the confessor and the penitent. While the convenience of online celebrations might be appealing, at heart, we always want to keep the fullness of the Church's tradition and the meaning of the sacraments.

FMPC Update

Facilities Master Planning Committee - June Update

EXCITING NEWS SACRED HEART!!!

We have officially hired SFS Architecture to assist us on creating a new master plan for our parish campus! The Committee feels very fortunate to be working with Kelly Stindt, Dana Vos and Kelsey Mahoney from SFS.

The most important part of this process is to hear from our parish community.

We will do this in the following ways:

- » Electronic survey. Responding to this survey will help SFS start understanding our community needs and wants with regard to our existing buildings, unfinished spaces and outdoor areas.
- » Programming sessions: we will have programming sessions with our ministries and other groups to better understand current space usage and what is desired with future space.
- » Town Hall meeting: everyone will be invited to attend a Town Hall meeting to hear the feedback that has been received and garner any additional information before SFS begins the concept of the master plan.

SFS will then draft potential plans for our campus that will be presented to the FMPC.

We hope to present a final concept to the parish by mid-December.

Be prepared to receive an e-survey in mid-July!!! We want to hear from everyone so that we can create a master plan that serves our entire community!
