Dear Sacred Heart of Jesus Parishioners,

Remember at our Parish Mission in February, I rolled out our very first survey (OF MANY!!), regarding the Five Foundation Stones.

I promised you that we would complete this survey every quarter so that we can measure our parish and how we are holding ourselves accountable to living out the Five Foundation Stones of: Adoration, Reconciliation, Rosary, Fasting and praying with scripture.

Please complete the survey so we can continue to track our progress as a parish. We will report back to you. In addition to that survey (I said there would be more!) we are at an exciting step in our Facilities Master Plan, where we are looking at every building and every space on our campus. As previously announced, we have hired an architecture firm (SFS) and now we want your FEEDBACK!

I am asking that you fill out the below 10-minute survey to give me an idea of where to prioritize our spaces here at Sacred Heart of Jesus Parish. After we gather your feedback, there will be a town hall in September with SFS to report the findings. Thank you in advance for your time and for your help in this most important endeavor.

Continue the mission with me of putting hearts on a collision course with the Sacred Heart of Jesus!

Fr. Jaime Zarse
Pastor

Gospel Meditation

14th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Once I asked a fallen-away Catholic friend of mine what he remembered about the parish priest from his youth. He said, "He was a gentle, nice guy. Kind of vanilla. Kept to himself." It struck me that he, perhaps like many, perceive Catholic priests as the following: lonely, harmless, and self-sufficient. As a challenge both to this perception (accurate or not) and to us priests who perhaps feel a pull in that uninspiring direction, stands the mighty image of what we see in the Gospel this Sunday.

Jesus sent out his apostles, "two-by-two, with power over demons, and without money belts." Two-by-two: they enjoyed deep fellowship and brotherhood. Power over demons: they were anything but harmless. These men wielded enormous power against evil. Without money belts: they were not self-sufficient. They needed others to help them. Not lonely, but in community. Not harmless but armed with massive spiritual energy. Not self-sufficient, but poor and in need of help.

This is a challenge to me, and perhaps to all of us, living in a rich, secularized, and individualized culture. Do I embrace my priestly ministry in deep fellowship with other priests? Do I speak and act boldly to drive out evil where it is found? Do I live poorly and simply, trusting in the help of those around me even for basic needs? The fruitfulness of priestly ministry largely depends on these three traits. Let's pray for all priests — and, by extension, all of us Christians — to live more like Jesus' communal, poor, and powerful apostles.

"HAVE NO ANXIETY AT ALL, BUT IN EVERYTHING, BY PRAYER AND PETITION, WITH THANKSGIVING MAKE YOUR REQUEST KNOWN TO GOD."

Brian's Experience with RCIA

What brought you to RCIA?

I was brought to RCIA to join my wife in our son's spiritual journey. I was called to join the Catholic faith to help aid and be a role model in his and my family's journey.

What was your experience through this year's RCIA process?

My experience with the RCIA process was a good one. The process was very welcoming and was laid out in a way that helped my growth into understanding Catholicism. The weekly reading assignments helped with preparation for the class videos and conversations.

What was your biggest surprise/Aha moment about the Catholic Church?

My biggest surprise and eye-opening moment was listening to all the witness that were brought in during our weekend retreat and during the weekly sessions. It was moving to hear how the Holy Spirit worked in their lives whether it was straightening their faith or brining them to or back to the faith. It showed what can happen when you open yourself to the Holy Spirit and Jesus.

What would you say to someone who is considering joining or returning to the Catholic faith through the RCIA process?

The RCIA process at Sacred Heart is a very warm and welcoming process. With Char's and Deacon Nicolas's open and honest conversations about all aspects of the Catholic faith - it made for a comfortable and trusting space. They did a great job of answering questions and making sure all questions were answered.

RCIA Registration is OPEN! Go to <https://www.shoj.org/rcia>. If you are considering becoming Catholic and have questions contact Char Mies, Adult Retreat & RCIA Coordinator at 913-276-3141 or charlene.mies@shoj.org.

SPONSORS NEEDED! We are in need of faithful, practicing Catholics who would like to accompany our RCIA participants this year. Sponsoring is an incredible privilege. Please consider sharing your journey with Christ and your love of this beautiful faith with others. Contact Char Mies at above number/email if interested or with any questions.

Why do we do that? Catholic Life Explained Confession & Children

Question: Our Catholic grade school is doing a penance service this Lent. Do young children really need to go to Confession? How much sin can they really have?

Answer: Ask any mom about her children and see how many would say she has a brood of perfect angels! Parents know that kids do things that are wrong ... and they often know they're doing it! Even toddlers have a sense of right and wrong. The Church recognizes that their minds and consciences are not yet fully developed, however, and typically waits until age seven to offer the sacrament of Confession. Around that age and beyond, most young people, when asked, can easily explain why something is wrong.

Confession for children is an excellent way to help them reflect on their actions and accept responsibility for their behavior. It helps them to grow in their understanding of sin and how it affects others. This helps them to form their consciences and make better choices in the future. Most importantly, they learn the value of forgiveness, both given and received. Rather than singling out what's wrong, Confession offers hope and a new start! Children can grow in understanding God's unconditional love and develop a sense of inner dignity that transcends their failings. Not bad for five minutes and an "Our Father" or two!
