Gospel Meditation

19th Sunday in Ordinary Time

This week we hear Jesus say, "He that believes in me, has eternal life" (John 6:47). These straightforward words, uttered by human lips, sound — how to put this? — insane. Who could possibly say such a thing? Jesus says things that are so high, so demanding, so beyond our capacity to fathom, we hardly know what to do with them and (if you're like me), they usually go in one ear and out the other. So, let us ask: how can believing in him lead to eternal life?

To believe in something means not just to acknowledge its existence, but also to orient yourself entirely to it. If a football player believes in his team, it means he puts his life totally at the service of that goal. If a student believes in her dream to become a doctor, she gives everything she has to her studies and preparation for her MCAT test. Belief means to move boldly toward something we love, and trust is possible to attain.

What is the highest possible good at which we can aim? It is God himself, the gift of eternal life without end. Jesus has made this "good" possible in and through his human nature. To believe in him means to have him as our ultimate goal. This week let's believe the truth of these words and make practical decisions to orient ourselves toward what we see available in him: eternal life.

Dawn's Experience with RCIA

What brought you to RCIA?

I chose to attend RCIA to learn more about the Catholic faith. I was raised Methodist. I had been attending Mass with my husband for over a decade, was married in the Catholic church, and raising my children Catholic. Over time, I felt like something was missing. I had belief and faith in the Lord, but I found myself craving a closer relationship with Jesus. At the beginning of the process, I was uncertain if that path was through the Catholic church and was still very much in a place of only considering becoming Catholic.

What was your experience through this year's RCIA process?

The experience through RCIA was more than I had hoped to gain. I expected it to be like a class in school, a lot of lectures and some written tests to pass. It was not like that at all. It was a great mix of learning through scripture, videos, and a lot of discussion. Char and Deacon Nicholas have an evident strong passion for the Lord and share it in beautiful and compassionate way. I built a connection with others in the class that I didn't expect as we shared our struggles and our joys. As I opened my heart more to Jesus, I began to see him showing up in my life more. He was always there; I just wasn't paying enough attention before. (And there are no written tests to pass. :)

What was your biggest surprise/Aha moment about the Catholic Church?

I was surprised, and greatly appreciated, the lack of pressure. There are many stereotypes about the Catholic faith and all the "rules." We had some tough discussion on difficult topics, but it was done in a very open, informational, and educational way. It was not forceful at all. What we didn't understand, we were asked to pray on for guidance. There was so much support in understanding that we are all on our own faith journey, and we are in different places on that path. God made us uniquely and individually so it only makes sense that our journey and relationship with him is just as unique and special.

What would you say to someone who is considering joining or returning to the Catholic faith through the RCIA process?

Take the step and try it out! If you find it's not for you, or not the right time, there is no pressure. The most important step is a step closer to Jesus.

If you are considering becoming Catholic and have questions contact Char Mies, Adult Retreat & RCIA Coordinator at 913-276-3141 or charlene.mies@shoj.org. RCIA starts in late August and registration has already begun. You will find a link to register at <https://www.shoj.org/rcia>.

Why do we do that? Catholic Life Explained Faith as a Theological Virtue

Question: I've heard that faith is a theological virtue. What does that mean?

Answer: To say a virtue is theological means that it comes as a gift from God. St. Thomas Aquinas, a Dominican monk who crafted the famous arguments for the existence of God, wrote: "This alone is the true knowledge of God: to know that God is beyond knowing." God is transcendent. This word comes from the Latin "transcendere," meaning "to climb beyond." When something is transcendent, it exists beyond our normal range of experience. Philosopher Peter Kreeft put it simply: "God is always more." While God created us in His image and likeness, too often we re-create Him in ours. We project our deepest hopes, our subliminal fears, and our hidden dreams, and conjure up our own image of what God could be. Yet God can never be limited to our own perception of Him. That's where faith comes in. We read in the Catechism that "faith is the theological virtue by which we believe in God and believe all that He has said and revealed to us and all that the Holy Church proposes for our belief" (CCC 1814). We can know God through reason, to a point. As human beings, we want to know and understand the world around us, but God isn't in the world around us. He's beyond it. The best way to come to know God is not through our own clever mental maneuvering, but through trusting in God's revelation of Himself. The only way we can have any idea is if we trust, through the virtue of faith, who He has revealed Himself to be.

Why is Reading Scripture so Important?

How many times have you prayed “tell me what to do Lord?”

All Christians have heard, at some point along the way, that reading scripture is pivotal to our faith but have you really meditated on WHY it’s so important? All of us yearn for a close relationship with Jesus. We not only want to feel his presence, but we want to HEAR his voice!

Reading the Word of God is exactly HOW we hear his voice. Sacred scripture is often called “The Living Word” because it isn’t merely a collection of stories written thousands of years ago. Scripture is fresh and relevant in every generation and is active in each person who receives it, to bring about everlasting change in their hearts. The Bible has the power to change and transform our lives for the better! Consider one the below studies starting in September, to help you hear our Lord’s voice more clearly!

Recognize God in your Ordinary Moments Murmurings

When people whisper, what they whisper usually is not flattering. It’s also usually not accurate. If it was either of these things, it probably wouldn’t have to be whispered. “Stop murmuring among yourselves,” Jesus tells the community in today’s Gospel, and I think I detect a hint of impatience in his voice — or is that just my own bias? Maybe, maybe not. But it’s true that what they were whispering about wasn’t particularly flattering, and it also wasn’t very accurate: Did you hear what he said? That he’s the bread of life? Do they disbelieve, or are they simply confused? Resentful? Afraid? Overwhelmed? We don’t know, but we do know that they’re not bringing their questions into the open. They’re whispering them, trading them secretly, like contraband candy. We know this guy. Who does he think he is? Well, if you ask me... And then we get to what is usually the true purpose of a whispered opinion: the desire to make oneself out as the correct and unchallenged judge of the matter at hand. In many ways, we have become a Church of murmurers. Did you see what Bishop So-and-So said to Such-and-Such newspaper? Did you hear what Fr. Whatshisname said in his homily? Who does he think he is? Perhaps it was always this way, even before modern times. Perhaps this Gospel shows us that this is no new thing. Today, we see Jesus respond to his sulking critics by drawing their attention back to the truth at the heart of his teaching. Everyone who listens to my Father and learns from him comes to me. And that is the end of their murmuring. The truth is like a brick wall, and it knocks them over - or rather they, hurling themselves against it, knock themselves over.

2024-25 STRENGTH IN SURRENDER

Class of 2022

SHOJ School staff loves nothing more than to see Forever Cardinals back in the building. These beautiful souls from the Class of 2022 returned to SHOJ as members of the Saint James Academy (SJA) chapter of the Tri-M Music Honor Society. Tri-M focuses on music, service, and faith by encouraging members to share their gift of music with the community. Genevieve, SJA Woodwinds Captain, and Peter, SJA Upper Brass Section Caption, are pictured here with Dr. Helen Harrelson, SJA Band Director. They spent time serving SHOJ's music department by organizing the Music classroom in anticipation of the new school year.

As they posed for this picture, Peter and Genevieve were laughing as they recollected lining up in this same spot for music class during their K-8 years at SHOJ. They reflected that SHOJ is a place of memories that spark a great deal of nostalgia for both of them. We love our Forever Cardinals!

Small Group Mentors

Our Small Groups Mentors are the heart and soul of the High School & Middle School Youth Ministry and Confirmation experience. Our mentors come from all different backgrounds and have different gifts. One of the main tasks of mentors is to lead discussion and activities during the Youth Ministry & Confirmation meetings with a partner. Session plans will be e-mailed in advance so leaders can review and prepare for each session. Small group mentors remain with the same small group throughout the entire year, which allows for the mentor and teens the opportunity to develop a meaningful relationship. See below for more!!

Middle School & High School Youth Ministry kick off in September. Contact Jen Zans, Youth Ministry Coordinator at jen.zans@shoj.org to sign up.

Small Groups for Youth Ministry Called to share the Gospel with others

Why small groups? Teens need to feel like they belong in order to believe. Small groups give them an environment where they are known, loved and cared for. Other tasks of small group mentors may include helping out with opening and closing prayers, giving a witness/catechetical talk and performing in skits to the larger group. A good small group mentor listens to, encourages and builds relationships with the young people and is first and foremost, a disciple of Jesus themselves.

Small Group leadership qualities

- Loves teens and feels called to meet them where they are at in their spiritual journey.
- Loves God and has a desire to continue their own spiritual development.
- Has a humble desire to serve others and a welcoming/invitational attitude.
- Works well with a partner or a team.
- Has a desire to listen to, encourage and build relationships with young people.
